

CATNEY NEWS

APRIL 2015

Dear Villagers,

Happy Easter!

Your Residents Association would like to thank everyone who has supported us by joining the Association. We are delighted that so many of you have given donations in addition to the annual membership fee. This has ensured that, although we still haven't reached the numbers we used to have on our membership list, we have received the largest amount of funds for more than six years. Thank you so much. If you would still like to join us, it is not too late; a form for completion is at the back of this edition.

We are having another Bacon Buttie day on the 11th April, between 10.00 am and 12.30 pm. Come along and meet your neighbours, have a laugh and a chat and a delicious bacon buttie and drink.

Resident Association members please note that Longfellows Restaurant is offering a 20% discount on their a la carte menu between Mondays and Fridays on production of your R.A. membership card.

Why not visit their secluded and pretty garden behind the restaurant, maybe just for a drink on a nice evening?

If any readers can offer a discounted service for our members, please let me know.

I would just like to encourage others to sign up to this organisation. I followed the instructions given last month, found it very easy to do, and it has given me no problems at all as yet. I have raised a little money for the Village Hall by buying tickets to a play at the Alexandra Theatre and by ordering quite small items from John Lewis and M and S. We are often shopping in Solihull so I would normally not order on-line from those two shops, but since I knew what I wanted I used their "click and collect" service so I could claim the donation at no extra cost to myself. The M and S purchase was even a 20% reduction. I have made only £3.34 for the Village Hall so far but it has cost me nothing – so please try it yourself. We need dozens of people on board to make this work!

The Glades

The Finnegan Family are running the Glades Football Centre.

We are very aware of the impact Sunday morning traffic has upon the local residents.

We do have car parking stewards on every Sunday and have moved our match start times to try and reduce the congestion. This has really helped our visitors and members to get their cars parked safely, this is of paramount importance to us.

As you will all be aware there are another two football clubs within the area.

We would welcome any suggestions you may have which will help us to ease the congestion situation in the area.

Also I wonder if any local residents could help us as we are currently looking for local casual staff from age 16-18 yrs male or female for a variety of duties.

Please apply in person or get in touch with myself at the above e-mail address or my husband Mark at

Some Catney pupils – do you recognise yourself or one of your friends?

Some Catney Memories from Stephen Roberts

I lived as a child at number 110 Henwood Lane, Catherine de Barnes or better known as Catney. The house we lived in was the lodge to the hospital. I lived with mother and father, 4 sisters and 3 brothers. We spent 3 years there from 1962 until 1965.

In 1962 I remember my dad and I going into the woods and looking for somewhere to dig a hole. I was only 5 at the time and did not understand what was going on, now I know it was the Cuban missile crisis, and dad thought he was going to have to build some form of shelter.

We were apparently, as a family, the first people in England to be vaccinated against small pox. during our stay only one patient was admitted. My youngest brother was born in the hospital on Boxing Day 1962. Mum was in hospital all alone with one midwife.

It was a very isolated place in those days, and in the winter of 63 we were isolated for two weeks as the lane had 6 foot of snow on it ,but we got by. Very fond memories.

Dad said the house was haunted by a young girl who used to sit on top of stairs, seen her few times he said, after a bit of research, he found out that a girl had in fact died in the house of diphtheria in 1936. Scary stuff.

I have since spoken to present occupiers and they tell me when digging in various locations around the outside they have unearthed different toys, one being a plastic helicopter which I remember burying .

At the far rear of the hospital there was a large land fill where they would regularly tip rubbish from Solihull, and Bordsley Green hospitals, now Heartlands. We always rummaged through this stuff; Lord knows what we played with. Dad threw a 1945 Vauxhall car down that hole - probably still there.

On Sundays dad used to pop into the grounds and shoot rabbit or hare. That was Sunday lunch, if we were lucky. Mum and all brothers and sisters are still alive, sadly dad passed away in 2006 having worked for the health service all his life.

I would also like to tell you about my school days. Along with three sisters and one brother, I went to school in the School next to the Boat Inn. There were only about 20 kids in school , five of them being us. The Headmasters name was Mr Dingly, nice chap. The school heating consisted of a coke boiler in the middle of the room, un-guarded if you went to near it and burnt yourself; well that was that, you knew better the next time! On Fridays we were given Communion of bread and wine. The toilets were out around the back of school in one building shared by all. There was a wall which we would stand on and look into pub car park, and chat to the customers. The landlord of the pub was named Mr Hinckley, his daughter Ray came to the school and we became sweethearts. Then one day they left and I was devastated. In 1978 we met by chance at a night club, had a good chat, but I've never seen her since!

Every Friday before we went home we were told to remember the three Ms - MANNERS MAKETH MAN. Loved that school.

Opposite the school there was a garage with two pumps, Mr Bradley owned that. He had a daughter called Rosemary who kept horses in the field next to our house in Henwood lane, one was called Candy.

Next to the garage was the newsagents called Blackhursts. The son of the family Chris came to the school and we were best mates. On my birthday his mum and dad took me to see The Bachelors live. Next to the shop was a scrap yard, all types of stuff in it, like bits for Spitfire aeroplanes.

Have you got any Catney memories you could share with us?
